HURRICANE IN A WIDE SWEEP DEVASTATES SOUTH FLORIDA AND COAST LINE

Not a Single House in Key West Left Unmarked by Fury

Forty-Five Persons
Drifting Helpless in Boat Off Miami.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
KEY WEST, Fla., Sept. 11.—With daylight today following the storm of yesterday, the people of Key West and surrounding territory were able for the first time to survey the destruction wrought by the hurricane that swept through here Tuesday night.

Not a house in the city had escaped damage and many were totally wrecked. The harbor presented a tangled mass of fishing vessels and other small craft, but latest reports failed to show deaths other than those on the dredge Grampus.

Of the 14 men on this craft 10 were rescued last night, one body was recovered and three are missing.
The British tanker Tonawanda, which had to be scuttled to save the liner Comal after that vessel had broken her moorings and gone aground was reported not in a bad position. The steamer St. Gougal also broke loose.

No vessels had left port early today nor had any trains come in over the Florida East Coast railway. In addition to the temporary stoppage of gas and electricity, the telephone service was suspended and newspapers were forced to suspend publication. Some business places, all of which were closed yesterday, including restaurants were opened today. A survey today of the situation resulting from the storm was expected to determine whether it would be necessary to ask outside assistance.

ADRIFF IN BOAT.

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 11.—A wireless message received here early this morning said 45 persons were adrift in small boats between Fowey Hook light house and Cape Florida about 15 miles from Miami. All were reported "in distress" and without food or water. No details were given and there was nothing to indicate their identity, but it was presumed they were members of crews of ships that went down during the hurricane that swept this section early yesterday. Boats have left here to bring them in.

STRIKES HAVANNA.

HAVANNA, Sept. 11.—The storm, accompanied by heavy winds, which for two days has swept the Cuba coast was rapidly abating tonight, except for intermittent heavy rainfall.

The United States Shipping Board's steamer Hillsborough County, Captain Roberts, is ashore 14 miles east of Matanzas. The vessel grounded on a sandy bottom, but was carried so far inshore by the waves that it will be a difficult task to salvage her. Tugs have gone to the assistance of the steamer, the crew of which is safe.

Anxiety is felt here concerning the Spanish steamer Valbanera, from Spanish ports for Havana and New Orleans which arrived at Havana yesterday morning and at last accounts was endeavoring to ride out the storm. There also was no news tonight concerning the steamer Monterey from New York. The death list as a result of the cyclone was given tonight as seven. Three persons were electrocuted by fallen wires and four drowned. The debris in the street is rapidly being cleared away.

Mexican Bandit
Killed By U. S.
Capt. Matlack

MARFA, Texas, Sept. 11.—Gregorio Renteria, brother of Jesus Renteria, the bandit leader who held Lieutenants Harold Peterson and Paul Davis for ransom in Mexico, was shot and killed by Captain Leonard Matlack across the river from Candelaria, according to a report from the river station today.

According to one version of the shooting Renteria told Mexicans in San Antonio, Chihuahua, opposite Candelaria, he was planning to cross the Rio Grande and "get two Americans." Captain Matlack went to investigate and when he saw Renteria draw his rifle, killed him.

STEEL WORKERS TO DISREGARD WILSON'S REQUEST; WILL QUIT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—With a strike of organized steel workers called to take effect September 22, in disregard of President Wilson's request that the unions postpone action pending the forthcoming industrial conference speculation as to the next development in the situation centered today on the possibility of the president again taking a hand in the matter either to urge reconsideration of the strike order by union officials or to endeavor to secure a hearing for the unions by the United States Steel corporation.

The strike was called yesterday by the executive council of the 24 unions embraced in the steel industry after they had telegraphed President Wilson for a "more definite statement" or the possibility of arranging a conference with steel corporation officials and the president in reply had wired a request that the unions accept postponement of the issue of union recognition until after the industrial conference.

As to the probable extent of the strike, union officials refused to indicate in speculation, but they branded as ridiculous a declaration attributed to Judge Gary, of the steel corporation that not more than 10 per cent. of the steel workers were organized. Officials claimed that in some places the workers are 95 per cent. organized and said organizers have been active for months at practically all mills in obtaining recruits for the unions.

he refused to give up his refreshments.

CARDINAL MERCIER SAYS EVIL INFLUENCES ARE DESTROYING CHRISTIANITY IN ALL EUROPE

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 11.— There is a deep motive back of the visit of Cardinal Mercier to this country, which was revealed when the Belgian prelate reached Baltimore to visit Cardinal Gibbons. It can be stated authoritatively that he will attend the convocation of Bishops, called by Cardinal Gibbons, September 27, in Washington, at which time he will ask for the good offices of the solidified American clergy, in removing from stricken Europe, the evil influences that are eating the foundations of Christianity.

Part of the program includes measures for unifying churchmen of the Teutonic lands in common purpose of teaching christian philosophy, in spite of national prejudice. By way of introducing this subject, Cardinal Mercier, in an interview, took occasion to express his utmost faith in the diplomatic policies of the United States, regarding the open discussion of vital international issues.

He warned of the evils of surreptitious negotiations and of the terrible influences for evil of the radical socialists and Bolsheviks who have subsidized the profession of Christ in countries infested by their insidious doctrines.

"The surreptitious diplomacy of the past," he said, "is passing away, though slowly under the magic wand of the open methods of the new democracy. The old school diplomats must have believed that they had the gift of speech for the purpose of concealing their thoughts, and (with a smile) on this basis of logic, he might infer that the apparent undying affection which they profess for each other is a mark of their critical attitudes. No better example of this can be had than the diplomacy of the Germans. And this diplomacy will never die so long as the military party is allowed to exist. Germany is not crushed. Her armies are defeated, her arms are laid down, but the Prussian spirit survives."

The Cardinal praised American methods of dealing with international problems. He found much gratification in the open discussion idea, straightforwardness, etc.

Revise Systems

"These open measures will, in the future, prevent wars, but they will not have stopped the great war, since Prussia has promised itself world dominion, regardless of diplomacy, decency and morals. But now, with Prussia temporarily it not properly managed, is the time to revise our national systems and of treating subjects of commercial, political, economical and territorial importance," he said.

Cardinal Mercier was asked his view regarding the League of Nations, but he was warned by Archbishop Hayes that it was a delicate subject at this time. So he answered: "I am not well versed enough in the details of the covenant to comment on the proposed league, or on anything regarding its practicability."

Wipe Out Distrust

"I cannot say whether it would open the door for the new diplomacy.
Regarding this latter, it seems to me that the first thing to be done is to wipe out distrust and deceit, and to substitute understanding, sympathy and confidence. Then there will be premises for the expurgation of fallacious policies."

The Cardinal believes that the peoples of the earth are not beyond the reaches of the mutual confidence and understanding as demonstrated by their spiritual exercises before and during the war.

Christianity Menaced

"To create premises for action," he resumed, "largely is part of the duty of the church, the particular function of spiritual educators. You will recognize the fact that where spiritual influence obtains, radicalism abides; moral sense and responsibility leave no preguable base for the invasion of unsound, unjust poisonous doctrines."

He made no attempt to disguise the fact that Socialism rapidly is menacing Christianity and particularly Catholicity in Germany.

Pershing Has a Busy Day in N. Y.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—General John J. Pershing's last day in New York as the guest of the city found him on the move from early morning, with every hour set aside on his program in a round of visits, receptions and luncheons to terminate tonight with a mass meeting of the American Legion in Madison Square Garden.

The general's morning schedule provided for a visit to a friend on Long Island, a call at the Pershing club for former soldiers, a meeting of soldiers, sailors and marines at the Hall of States in West Twenty-fifth street, and a luncheon tended by the Rotary Club.

In order to answer a few of the hundreds of pressing messages and letters that have clogged the Waldorf-Astoria hotel mail system for three days, he planned to spend the entire afternoon with his secretary and stenographer.

School Teachers Worked Cheaply In Year 1811

HAMILTON, O., Sept. 11.—How a woman school teacher of Union township, this county, traveled 22 miles on horseback daily at $1.50 a month, part of her salary being paid in flax, wool and linen, was brought to light in a contract signed here in 1811.

The agreement was between the school authorities of Union township and Miss Flavia Langdon of Cincinnati. She used a horse to travel between her home and a log school on the southern fringe of Butler county.

The agreement was discovered by E. P. Jackson, of Northfield, Minn., whose wife's grandfather, named Harris lived in Union township in 1811. The agreement was signed by Miss Langdon, Charles Gegg, Amos Gegg, Daniel Griffin, Daniel Hughes and others, and a photograph of the original was sent to this city.

couple will be taken back to Alliance upon the request of the girl's father who gave information that Hill had started this way with his daughter.
Hill says he will not fight extradition but will face the charges back

The Daniels girl told Sheriff Cooper today that she and Mr. Hill were go-

Long Delay Periled
U. S. Rights—New Deal is Impossible

Rejecting Any Part is to Reject Whole Plan Presented.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Rejection of the peace treaty with its league of nations covenant, or adoption of amendments, would mean sacrifice by the United States of all concessions obtained from Germany under a dictated peace, minority members of the foreign relations committee declared in a report presented today to the senate.

The report prepared by Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, ranking democratic member of the committee, urged speedy ratification of the treaty without amendments or reservations. It deplored "the long and unnecessary delay to which the treaty has been subjected, while locked up in the committee, whose recommendations were from the start a foregone conclusion," and asserted these recommendations could have been made in July.

Senator Shields, democrat, Tennessee, did not sign the report, having announced that he favored league covenant reservations prepared by Chairman Lodge. It was stated that he would present a separate report. Those signing in addition to Senator Hitchcock were Senators Williams, Mississippi; Swanson, Virginia; Pittman, Ohio; Smith, Arizona and Fournier, Nevada, all democrats.

Denies Claims
The minority denied the claim set forth in Chairman Lodge's report that the peace conference still was in session and has power "to bring German representatives to Paris," saying such power of compulsion had been exhausted and that Germany
"had closed the chapter by signing and by ratifying."

"If an amended treaty is not signed by Germany," the report added, "then it is in none of its parts binding on her."

The report mentioned 12 concessions the United States would lose by failure to ratify the treaty, these including industrial and economic advantages and agreements.

Reservations proposed by the majority, the report said were "for the purpose of destroying the league," which has stood "the test of worldwide criticism and unlimited attack."

The minority urged that the work of the peace conference be confirmed and the peace of the world advanced by ratification of the treaty described as the best hope of the world, "even if like all instrumentalities it be not divinely perfect in every detail."

World in Ferment
The report contended that the industrial world was "in ferment" the financial world "in doubt," and commerces halted while delay on the treaty had been caused "by the majority of a committee known to be out of harmony with the majority of the senate and the majority of the people." This was declared to be government by obstruction as well as by minority.

Export trade, the report said, had suffered because of delay in ratification; that private credit waited for peace, and that this government.

which has been advancing to European governments has about reached the end of its authority given it by congress. Private enterprise, it said, from now on must keep up American commerce with Europe. Answering the majority, the report said exports to Germany since the armistice amounted to only 14 cents worth of American products for each person in Germany, or two cents per person per month.

Sees Majority

"Referring to the action of the majority of the committee," said the report, "we unite in opposing and condemning the recommendations both as to textual amendments and as to proposed reservations. As far as the proposed textual amendments are concerned we see no reason to discuss their character at length. In our opinion they have no merit but whether they be good, bad or indifferent their adoption by the senate can have no possible effect, except to defeat the participation of the United States in the treaty. None of them could by any possibility be accepted even by the great nations associated with the United States in the war, and none of them could by any possibility be dictated to Germany. To adopt any one of them, therefore, is equivalent to rejecting the treaty.

"To adopt an amendment or to reject the treaty means that the United States will sacrifice all of the concessions secured from Germany by a dictated peace. While these concessions are not so large as those which other nations associated with us secure in reparations, they are nevertheless of tremendous importance and could only be secured under a dictated peace. Among the concessions which the United States would sacrifice may be included the following:

"First, Germany's acknowledgment of responsibility for the war and her promise to make restitution for damages resulting from it.

"Second, Germany's promise to us in the treaty that she will not impose high or other customs duties or charges on our goods than those charged to the most favored nation and will not prohibit or restrict, or discriminate against, imports directly or indirectly from our country.

"Third, Germany's promise to us in the treaty that she will make no discrimination in German ports on ships bearing our flag and that our shipping in German ports will be given as favorable treatment as German ships receive.

"Fourth, that for six months after the treaty goes into effect no customs duty will be levied against imports from the United States except the lowest duties that were in force for the first six months of 1911.

"Fifth, Germany's agreement with us that the United States shall have the privilege of reviving such of the treaties with Germany as were in existence prior to the war as we may desire.

"Sixth, Germany's promise to us to restore the property of our citizens seized in Germany or to compensate the owners.

"Seventh, Germany's very important agreement validating all acts by the United States and by the allied custodian by which we seized and proceeded to liquidate $800,000,000 worth of property in the United States belonging to German citizens.

"Eighth, Germany's agreement that the proceeds of the sale of these properties may be used to compensate our citizens in Germany if Germany fails to do so, or to pay debts which Austrians or Germans owe to American citizens or to pay American pre-war claims against Germany for property destroyed and lives taken similar to the losses because of the destruction of the Lusitania.

"Ninth, Germany's agreement that she will compensate her own citizens for property, patents and other things belonging to them in the United States seized during the war by our government.

"Tenth, Germany's agreement that no claim can be made against the United States in respect to the use or sale during the war by our government or by persons acting for our government of any rights industrial, literary or artistic property including patents.

"Eleventh, Germany's agreement that the United States shall retain over 100,000 tons of German shipping seized in American ports which more than compensates us for shipping lost during the war.

"Twelfth, we would lose our membership on the reparations commission which will be the most powerful interest today ever created and which will have enormous control over the trade and commerce of Germany with the rest of the world for years to come. It not only supervises the use of German economic resources and the payment of reparations, but it can restrict or expand Germany's imports and distributes much of her desirable exports including dyes. In no way can the United States assert itself against discrimination in German imports and financial policies unless we have a member upon this great reparations commission."

"Thirteenth, Germany's agreement that the proceeds of the sale of these properties may be used to compensate our citizens in Germany if Germany fails to do so, or to pay debts which Austrians or Germans owe to American citizens or to pay American pre-war claims against Germany for

G. A. R. TAKING UP BUSINESS; TO ELECT COMMANDER TODAY

COLUMBUS, Sept. 11.—Delegates to the fifty-third annual encampment of the G. A. R., will begin their business session this morning which probably will last through tomorrow. Election of officers, selection of next year's encampment city and adoption of resolutions will be the main business of the session.

The new commander-in-chief probably will be selected late today or tomorrow. James D. Bell, Brooklyn, N. Y., is considered the most likely candidate in the field.

General Leonard Wood is expected to be a G. A. R. visitor tomorrow.

Sessions of the Daughters of Veterans were shortened today by the illness of their national president, Mrs. Estella Moore, of Chicago, who is expected to leave for her home today.

Mrs. Moore was taken ill Tuesday night. A short time later she received word of the death of her father, J. Miller, of Los Angeles, and also a message saying that her mother is not expected to live.

It was announced today that the Daughters of Veterans have a membership of 25,000. Election of officers for the ensuing year will take place today.

RUMANIANS SEEK TO EXPLAIN THEIR REFUSAL TO SIGN

PARIS, Sept. 11.—The Rumanian delegation to the peace conference, in explaining its attitude in refusing to sign the treaty with Austria, holds that, since Rumania acquired membership in the league of nations through signing the treaty with Germany, the league must be the tribunal which will eventually consider its claims and decide whether Rumania can be forced to accept a treaty "providing for foreign interference in her domestic affairs."

Rumania's objection to signing the treaty was based on the clause providing that nations receiving territory from the former Austria-Hungarian empire must provide for the protection of racial and religious minorities residing there.

PARIS, Sept. 11.—The Serbian delegation here advised the peace conference today that because of the fall of the government in Belgrade it was unable to obtain instructions concerning the signing of the Austrian treaty. The delegation said it would have to wait for such instructions until a new cabinet was formed.

Saloonkeepers Defy Federal Court in Toledo

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 11.—Six former saloonkeepers who kept their places open as soft drink parlors have ignored a summons to appear at the office of the deputy collector of internal revenue to pay fines for alleged liquor sales since July 1. One of the men is Councilman Charles J. Sealy.

Federal authorities are considering contempt proceedings against the six according to a statement today.

LONDON ASPIRES TO BE MARKET OF WORLD FOR SUGAR

LONDON, Sept. 11.—An effort is being made to make London "the sugar-market of Europe," in place of Hamburg, Germany, which before the war, was the center of the trade, handling vast quantities of home grown as well as imported sugar. When the British blockade isolated Germany, London became the pivotal point and exporters are doing all they can to make the change permanent.

Every week large quantities of sugar reach here of which only a small portion is taken by the sugar commission for home consumption. The rest is re-exported. But for this fact there would be no reason, experts say, for sugar rationing in Britain.

LOOTING AMERICAN EMBASSY VERIFIED BY RUSS REPORTS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Looting of the American and other embassies in Petrograd has been confirmed by an investigation made for the state department, it was announced today by Acting Secretary Phillips.

A cable dated September 6, said that Bolsheviks during the middle of July sacked the American embassy, which since has been used for housing families of some of the Bolshevik commissars. Most of the foreigners in these raids have been sent to Moscow, it was said.

In the raid on the American embassy, Miss Karin Sante was at first put under arrest and later released but sent to Moscow with the other foreigners. The Misses Kennedy and Levisguine, other employees, were not molested. None of these was American. Miss Sante was a Finnish employee of the embassy who consented to remain in charge of the embassy premises and archives. Most of the embassy archives had been removed from Petrograd.

Recently an emissary, not an American, sent into the Bolshevik territory to ascertain the facts regarding the looting of the embassy was killed by the Bolsheviks.

This is the first case of this kind that ever came up in the state of Ohio, it is understood, and City Auditor Rupert was dubious as to whether or not it is permissible to pass an emergency ordinance for an increase in salary.

Attaches of the water works will now receive the back increase from August 4, the date the ordinance was passed by city council.

BOOZE SELLERS HELD

YOUNGSTOWN, Sept. 11.—A dozen saloonkeepers, under arrest on charge of selling liquor, were taken to Cleveland this morning to face action by the federal authorities, who caused the arrests. Federal agents had been here for some time gathering evidence, which was said to show that liquor was being sold openly, though at high prices, across local bars.

RUSS CLAIM VICTORY

LONDON, Sept. 11.—A Bolshevik wireless dispatch from Moscow today claims the capture of nearly 12,000 prisoners from Admiral Kolchak's all-Russian forces in the region of Akhtub-Skorsk. It is declared the surrender of the remainder of Kolchak's southern army is expected.

LICKING COUNTY FARMER, AGE 61 FEELS 21 AGAIN

Declares All the Rheumatism Has Left His Ankles, and Soreness Gone From His Muscles.

Dreco Got His Stomach in Fine Condition by Relieving Gastritis and Indigestion

"I kept reading what my neighbors said about Dreco, and some of their cases fit mine exactly, so I decided to try it also," says Mr. C. A. Harrison, a prosperous farmer, near Newway, Licking Co., O.

"I had tried many remedies for rheumatism, but none seemed to do me any good, for mine was a pretty bad case. While I had pains all over my body, my ankles bothered me worse. They would swell up and cause intense suffering. My stomach got in bad shape from taking so much strong medicine for the rheumatism, and if I'd eat a good meal, I'd pay for it later with pains, gastritis, nausea, and puffed up feeling."

"One day while in Columbus, I got some Dreco, and I want to say that all the rheumatism is gone. My ankles are entirely free from pain, the stiffness has left my joints, and my muscles are no longer hard and drawn. I am 61 years old, but feel like a youngster again, thanks to the grand medicine, Dreco."

"If you have been fighting stomach troubles, dyspepsia, indigestion, headaches, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, constipation, liver and kidney trouble, catarrh, or that dreadful scourge, rheumatism, you should try the new preparation, Dreco, and you are then on the road to recovery. The action of this remedy is just as certain on the human system as that the morning follows the night. That this is proven conclusively, it is only necessary to listen to the statements of the steady stream of grateful people who daily make their statements to the Dreco Man."

THE MENACE.

For a long time The Times has been stressing the statement that the gravest danger to the social and industrial peace of the United States lay in the rapacity of those persons who deal in the necessities of life. It has been frequently suggested in these columns that the most likely source of Bolshevistic tendencies in this country was not the preaching of Trotskyism by radical agitators, but the growing sense of helplessness on the part of the consumer in the clutches of the profiteers. When the ordinary citizen finds himself being consistently and relentlessly victimized and finally comes to the opinion that his government is inept to relieve him, he is extremely apt to lose faith in that government and to prove a ready prey to suggestions that he take the law into his own hands.

Nobody of sound mind will deny the justification of the consumer's resentment toward the extortion which seems to meet him at every turn in the road. Somebody is out to gouge him in almost every phase of existence. In many instances the robbery is bald and insolent. He meets it not only in the food he buys, the rent he pays and the apparel he purchases, but in the labor he hires. That he joins the procession himself on the plea that "everybody's doing it" may give him a trifle of moral satisfaction, but it does not by any means contribute to the lightening of his load.

It is imperative, of course, that every resource of legislation and regulation be invoked to prevent the unscrupulous robbery which has reached a stage that threatens the foundations of the nation. That the state and federal governments will take vigorous measures goes without saying. How efficient they may be, and how far regulation can go without becoming an absolute deterrent to legitimate business, are matters which only experience can determine. It is obvious, however, that the powers of government are limited not only by the constitution but by the fundamental laws of economics.

The fact is that the profiteering evil is essentially a moral evil and that the wave of reckless plundering which has swept over the country and the world is a form of mania. Whether it is a reaction from the excited ethical plane inspired by the menace of war and the sacrifices endured during the darker hours or merely a temporary reversion to the primal instinct of greed, the metaphysicians are best qualified to determine. But the fact is plain that no amount of legislation can cope successfully with the extortion menace unless there is a moral awakening among the people of the nation that will galvanize the popular conscience to a freshened sense of common honesty between men.

It will not solve the problem to make examples of a few "high rollers." If we are to deal intelligently and soundly with profiteering we shall have to demand in the beginning that all the plaintiffs in the case come before the court with clean hands themselves.

THE UNOBTUSIVE SALESMAN.

In discussing our possibilities in South America a gentleman who understands the Latin mind and manner as few others do, says that we must educate "unobtrusive salesmen" to go down there and sell goods. "If you want the sympathy of your customer," he says, "you must acquire similar tastes." He goes on to say that "the Latin American character will not change violently and social considerations will always be a determining factor in trade relations. The cultured representative of American industry will do more to remove prejudice and the haunting fear of American hegemony than all the assurances of American statesmen, and all the publications of the Pan-American union, great though their usefulness be."

In other words, we must send representatives to South America to live as the people live down there, not to teach the people down there to live as we do. We must send men there who can acquire the state of mind of the Latin, and who will not seek to convert the Latin to our way of thinking.

The trouble in the past has been that we have done these very things. We have sent our enthusiastic salesmen down there, and the first thing the salesman did was to tell the merchant that he wasn't running his store the way it ought to be run. Instead of trying to find out what the people wanted, and making it for them, our representatives have tried to convince the people down there that they ought to want what we are making. And it hasn't worked very well.

WHAT THE FARMER GOT.

A western paper that comes to our exchange table regularly contained an interesting story recently of five farmers from that state who formed a party in Washington, D. C. They went to a well known moderate-priced hotel in the capital for dinner and when they received their bill they found that it totaled a few cents more than eleven dollars. Afterward they figured the amounts of various foods they had consumed and found that of the $11 they had spent for the dinner the farmer had received only 82 cents.

To be sure everyone is aware that first-class hotel service in this place is high. When we enter such a place we expect everything to be in first-class condition. We want our hotels to be handsome places, richly appointed and the service to be first-class in every particular. We do not wish anything to have the appearance of shabbiness or wear and we want a small regiment of servants constantly at our beck and call. All of which, of course, costs money—more of it than most persons realize.

Nevertheless, there is too wide a difference between the 82 cents that the farmer got for the food that he made up that dinner and the $11 that it cost when served to that party of farmers at the Washington hotel.

WHY A COAL SHORTAGE?

It doesn't require a person with an unusual mathematical mind to understand why this country is threatened with a coal shortage next fall and winter.

The reason, in a nutshell is due to the fact there will not have been mined as much coal this year as there was last year. The demand will probably be as great, or greater in 1920, but the supply will not be equal to the requirements—therefore the shortage.

The exodus of foreigners returning to their native country, coupled with the absence of thousands of miners who were drafted into the national army and have but recently returned, has cut in heavily on the coal production in America.

There is a strong likelihood that the railroads of the country are not going to be able to handle coal in such volume as will be required if the majority of people put off buying until winter comes. Coal in sufficient quantities cannot be stored at the mines and just now there seems to be just enough developed to meet present requirements.

Labor scarcity has already seriously affected the production, and the situation in this respect is growing no better. Sensible people will order their coal supply at once.

A "HARD" PEACE.

Contemporaneously with Senator Knox's denunciation of the Versailles treaty as a "hard and cruel peace" for Germany, the republican Chicago Tribune reprints this little item of news from the Paris Matin:

"The war cost France $63,000,000,000. Of the $25,000,000,000 demanded by the allies from Germany, the share of France will amount to about $12,000,000,000. Consequently, France will have to produce from her own resources about $50,000,000,000. According to Mr. Berthoin's calculations, the war has reduced France to a population of 35,000,000."

"Germany has not been invaded, and her industries can be immediately put in running order. Her minister of foreign affairs has said officially that the German nation expended $34,000,000,000 in the war. With the indemnity of $25,000,000,000 added to this figure, the total amounts to $59,000,000,000. The population of Germany is approximately 65,000,000."

"This means that the war debt of each Frenchman is more than $1,400, while that of each German is less than $900."

But Senator Knox, of course, was not thinking about France—or Belgium, either, for that matter. His concern is for the nation responsible for their debt and devastation.

HAPPY THOUGHT—Congress had better hurry up with that proposed repeal of the soft drink tax or the hot spell and the desire for soft drinks will have passed.

The former marine who has been issued a passport to France marked "for matrimony" will be regarded by pessimists as starting out on a stormy voyage.

The Germans having started a probe of their own to fix the blame for the war we'll probably learn that Turkey was the arch-culprit after all.

Some persons would be content to let the former kaiser spend his days sawing wood, if they were permitted to pick out the saw and the wood.

GOOD EVENING—That Illinois judge who says half-per cent. beer is intoxicating in his definition of the federal statutes probably knows more about law than he does about beer.

The Times' Family Doctor

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO WHEN ANYONE IS BITTEN BY A DOG

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG
A. B., M. D. (John Hopkins University)

For the safety of children and others in a community all knowledge regarding mad dogs, rabies and hydrophobia ought to be put into real practice by everyone.

Rabies is an infectious, microbial disease. The microbes are in the mouth and saliva of the dog.

Lameness occurs once in awhile before the throat ceases to swallow water, saliva or food.

As many mad dogs are sluggish and indolent as are exciting and snappy.

You cannot drive a dog mad or frighten it into madness, if it has not caught rabies from some other animal which bit it some weeks previously.

The "sweetest and dearest pet poodle in the world" may abruptly go mad and bite the hand that caresses it.

Hydrophobia cannot be stamped out and by denying it and snuffing the public's eyes to it. All such obstinate romanticism helps to spread the malady which muzzles and lashes or chains will eliminate.

Rabies, once it starts, is fatal in a few days, but it can be prevented absolutely by the Pasteur preventive vaccine. This treatment should be begun when the bite occurs in order to head off the rabies microbes which slowly work their way from the locality of the wound to the spinal cord. This may take from three weeks to a few months. The vaccine works destruction to the rabies germs in three weeks.

Call the Doctor

Immediately following exposure through the bite of an animal or the infliction of wounds during the handling of any animal, of which the cause of death is not clearly known, the exposure should be sufficiently alarming to cause the adoption of every precautionary measure until it is proved that the animal had or did not have rabies. All wounds should be cauterized as soon as possible with steaming nitric acid in the hands of the nearest doctor. Other acids are not good for this. It is never too late to derive some benefits in cauterizing. Thorough cleansing with antiseptic solutions should be followed by the application of fuming nitric acid until the tissues are charred, followed with an aseptic dressing.

Whenever there is any reason whatsoever to suspect that the animal directly or indirectly responsible for the wound may have rabies, aside from cauterizing and dressing the wound, arrangements should at once be completed for the administration of the rabies vaccine in the form of the preventive treatment prepared after the method of Pasteur.

If the animal is dead its head should be detached from the body and sent to a state or municipal laboratory prepared to examine the brain for evidences of rabies. If the animal is alive, every possible effort should be made to keep it securely confined under observation for at least two weeks.

When an animal is killed in the early stages of the disease the changes sought for in the brain, indicating the existence of rabies, are likely to be entirely absent. If changes, known to occur in rabies, in the brain or other parts of the nervous system are not found in an animal killed early in the course of the disease the saliva may have contained the virus at the time of biting and the person bitten may be dangerously infected with the disease.

Further Precautions

When an animal has died as a consequence of the disease, examination of the brain will readily reveal changes and make an accurate, early diagnosis possible. The saliva may contain the virus several days before the animal shows symptoms of the disease, and the bite of an animal at this time may result in the development of hydrophobia. Therefore, danger may result from the bite of an animal apparently normal at the time of biting.

When there is the slightest reason to suspect that an individual has been exposed to rabies he should be immediately placed under the treatment. The rabies vaccine preventive treatment does no harm, even though it is later shown that the individual was not exposed to rabies.

Telephone or telegraph at once to the laboratory or health department stating clearly the number of victims and their names and addresses in full who are to receive the treatment. The rabies vaccine is freshly prepared each day, and is kept in constant readiness for immediate use.

R. J. K. Q.—On and off during the past eight or ten years I have been troubled with pains in my right side, mostly between the right hip bone and the navel or in that vicinity. Can you tell me what causes this pain?

A.—A condition such as you describe may be due to appendicitis, gall stones, hernia, kidney or bladder trouble, flat foot. Constipation is not the cause, but an effect of your indoor, quiet, clerical work. Appendicitis can be excluded if there is no rigidity in the abdominal muscles, also if the blood corpuscles, counted, do not tell it. Gall stones, colic is suspected if the blood and kidney fluids show bile salts. X-rays also give information. Hernia or rupture must be sought by a good surgeon by examination. Also he knows much about the kidneys and bladder. X-ray pictures help this flat feet sometimes produce the very symptoms you describe. It is obvious that you must have a thorough physical examination to determine the precise cause.

Short Stories of the Buckeye State

FEARED LINCOLN'S SYMPATHY

In the last conference General Grant and Sherman the great Ohio war leaders, had with President Lincoln regarding the conduct of the Civil war, the president was so extremely anxious to avoid further bloodshed as to cause the generals to fear that he might become so sympathetic as to accept almost any kind of terms for the conclusion of hostilities.

The conference was held on board the river vessel Gem City on which the president, accompanied by Mrs. Lincoln, had come down to City Point on the James river. It was on March 25, 1865, that army and navy officers who were conferring there went on board the Gem City to pay their respects to the president. It was the first time the president had seen General Sherman, after the march to the sea and he pressed the general to relate humorous stories at length of his unusual experience on that campaign, at many of which the president laughed heartily. He was in excellent humor and repeatedly expressed the wish, General Sherman said, that the war might be ended without another important battle. There had been enough bloodshed, he said.

He pressed the generals for an expression as to whether the war might not be brought to a close without another battle. General Sherman reminded him that that was a matter without their control; it rested with the enemy. All felt sure that the end was at hand and the president was so sure of it that his one concern seemed to be to have it over as quickly as possible, without further loss of life and to get the soldiers on both sides back into their homes soon.

Writing of the conference afterward, General Sherman said that both he and General Grant believed that one more battle would have to be fought. General Sherman himself felt that it would fall to him to fight this battle somewhere in the vicinity of Raleigh. General Grant said to the president that if Lee would but wait a few days he would have his forces so disposed that if he attempted to abandon Richmond and join Johnston's forces he would be on his heels in an instant. Admiral Porter made diary entries of the conference with President Lincoln which he subsequently presented to General Sherman, and which show that he too was uneasy at the tender sympathy manifested by Mr. Lincoln and feared that in that state of mind he might be willing to treat prematurely with the confederates and on too easy terms.

OUR BED-TIME STORY

FOR TINY TIMES-DEMOCRAT FOLKS

Jane was just as interested as Jack was when Captain Brave told them how the Swiss children had great sport in the winter going to and from school on skis. Of course, in winter instead of summer," said Jack when Captain Brave had finished telling them about tobogganing and ski-ing.

"Well, I wouldn't feel too badly about it, because we may stop here again when winter is here," said Captain Brave laughingly.

Jack and Jane couldn't decide whether he was just humoring them or really meant what he said. You can just imagine what they hoped, though.

"I think we will have to leave Booh behind if we come here in winter," said Ladydear, who overheard Jack's remark as she helped Widow Aar about the housework.

"Oh, no, why?" exclaimed Jane and Jack together.

"Well, you see, everything is covered with snow in winter. Booh is just as white as snow himself. If he ever stepped out of the house he'd be lost in a minute and we couldn't find him. I'm afraid his shoe-button eyes and nose couldn't be seen very far."

"We could tie a great big red or green ribbon around his neck," said Jane, who thought Ladydear was really serious. Booh must have thought they were discussing him, so he showed them how he would let them know where he was if he ever got lost in the snow. He sat back on his hind legs and barked.

"I guess as long as he could bark he wouldn't stay lost very long," said Jack.

REAL MOVIE REEL AND OPERATION MYSTERY REVEALED

Tiny Pictures on Celluloid Film All Look Alike
But They Are Not

OPERATOR IS ALERT

Cooped In Close Quarters
His Job Has Its Dangers Also

Did you ever see a movie reel?
Know how the machine operates?
Have any idea of how the operator works?

Probably not, unless you have been connected with the movies one way or another. For no one with the exception of the operator is permitted in the booth where the machine shoots the picture down to the screen below. And while you were sitting in the cool theatre below, you may often have wondered vaguely just how the movie operator ever learned to work the machine.

A Times reporter the other day was permitted to visit one of these picture booths, and the operator courteously explained the workings of this wonder machine, which has only been in existence during the 20th century. A reel of film is just a round spool of black tin, wound round with celluloid film like a kodak film, just one inch wide. And across the inch wide film are tiny little pictures which are flashed on the screen. They follow each other right down the long line of film.

And at first glance they all look like the same picture, but they are not. Each picture differs by just a hundredth fraction of an inch. If a man is walking the difference in his position is so gradual that it may may sometimes take 50 or 60 of those little pictures before you see the completed action. That's what makes the movies move.

The operator never touches the film after it is once on the machine until the reel is all finished, and he puts on the next. It's all those thousands of inch wide film, in the little pictures that follow each other so rapidly thru the machine, that the impression of action is flashed upon the screen. Just the title that flashes on for a minute probably takes up a hundred of those little pictures.

Movie operating is not hard, but it is confining. The little coop where the operator sits is hot and stuffy, owing to the frightful heat and light made by the machine. It is not without its dangers either as the celluloid films are very inflammable it is necessary for the operator to be always on the job, seven days a week, with no off days, as they are few that can fill his place.

GERMANS FILE PROTESTS

PARIS, Sept. 11.—The German delegation at Versailles today delivered a note from the German government protesting against alleged attacks by Polish bands along the Upper Silesian border.

MAY JOIN HUNGARY WITH ROUMANIA

Budapest Considers Union, Is Report; Bukharest
Rejects Austrian Pact

PARIS, Sept. 11.—Dr. Stephen Friedrich, premier of Hungary, is reported in a Vienna dispatch printed in newspapers here to be announcing garian delegation to Bukharest. The report states that, besides being empowered to negotiate a separate peace with Roumania, the delegation may discuss the eventual union of Hungary and Roumania.

Advices reaching the peace conference from Budapest indicate the government headed by Dr. Friedrich probably will remain in office indefinitely. It is said Franz Heitrich, effort to establish a coalition cabinet has been abandoned and there apparently is a general support of the Friedrich government.

The Roumanian delegation to the peace conference announced today it would not sign the Austrian peace treaty, the signing of which by Austria and the big allied powers is set for 10 tomorrow morning.

It also is considered as improbable that the Yugoslav delegation will several days delay, however, to communicate with its home government.
The reply to be made to the German note regarding the allied demand for the suppression of Article 61 of the German constitution again was discussed by the supreme council at today's session. The agreement was reached as to the terms of the reply, but it is expected these will be framed tomorrow.

The German peace delegation sent a note to the general secretariat of the peace conference this morning on the Silesian question. The note complained of disturbances in upper Silesia alleged to have been incited by the Poles.

The Bolsheviks have proposed peace to the Lithuanians according

PARENTS SHOULD REPORT BIRTH OF CHILDREN AT ONCE

Physicians Here Said to Be Ignoring Important
State Law

RECORDS ARE NEEDED

Family Moved to Cleveland Unable to Prove Age of a Child

Lima parents are again urged by the board of health thru their registrar, Miss Margaret Nash, to report the birth of children to the health office, or to remind the attending physician that it is a state ruling that births be reported almost immediately so that a record may be kept of all births in Lima.

In many other cities this ruling is strictly complied with, but for some reason or other in Lima parents do not realize the necessity of having a proper record of the births of their children.

Here's Illustration.
To show an instance of the lack of reporting. A Lima family recently moved to Cleveland, and having a six year old daughter desired to place her in the schools there. No pupils under the new school rules in Cleveland can enter any of the schools unless they produce a birth certificate.

No Record Here
The former Lima family then wrote to the local health office giving the day and year in which the little girl was born, but a thorough search thru the records failed to reveal a record of her birth. It is now necessary to search the state records at Columbus to see if by chance they have a record of her birth, before she can enter the Cleveland schools.

MEXICAN MINE LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL BY OFFICIAL RULING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
MEXICO CITY, Sept. 11.—The mining law of 1884 is unconstitutional and illegally except hydrocarbons in the soil and subsoil from the national domain, according to a letter from Jose Vazquez Schaffino, chief of the petroleum section of the department of industry and commerce, in El Universal. Protest by foreign oil interests against alleged confiscatory oil decrees is based on rights acquired under this law.

In framing the oil law initiative, sent by President Carranza to congress last November for developing Article 27 of the constitution, Mr.
Schaffino said, his department was impelled by the highest motives and sought to protect vested interests and investments. He asserted that the reading of the transitory provisions of this initiative would show that, in regard to vested interests created by the protection of former laws, only a simple tax was imposed.

With regard to the mining law of 1884, his statement said: "This department has not interpreted capriciously in a thousand different ways Article 27; but in only one way, the revindication of the dominion of the nation over the hydrocarbons of the soil and subsoil and its incorporation into the mining regime which always has been in force in Mexico since the time of the Spanish domination, and from which it was illegally excepted by an unconstitutional law, (The mining law of 1884)."

All Linemen in Columbus Are Back at Work

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 11.—Clearance of arbitration obstacles between striking linemen of the Columbus Railway, Power and Light Company, and company officials yesterday resulted in the termination of the walkout which has been in effect since August 8. Trolley men returned to work shortly after midnight Tuesday while the remainder of the strikers were on the job early Wednesday.

Representatives of the linemen in conference with the company officials signed a contract in which all points of issue will be left to an arbitration board, formation of which will be completed within 10 days.
Appointment of an arbitrator to represent the linemen is in the hands of a committee.

Ohio State Telephone Company's linemen and operators at a similar meeting last night voted, however, to continue their strike which started four weeks ago.

PRESIDENT RECEIVES WARM WELCOME IN NORTHWEST TOWNS

BILLINGS, Mont., Sept. 11.—Laying his appeal for the peace treaty before the people of Montana today, President Wilson declared the question of its ratification was a question whether the United States would fulfill its pledges to its people and to the world.

Thousands of visitors from a 500 mile radius were here to greet the president. Eight thousand or more persons filled the fair grounds auditorium within an hour after the doors were opened at 8 o'clock and the streets were lined from the detrain-ing place to the fair grounds gates.
After his address here the president will depart for Helena where tonight he will deliver his second scheduled speech in Montana.

There were two addresses on his day's program, Mr. Wilson speaking at the Billings Auditorium before noon so that he could reach Helena in time for a meeting at night. He arrived here from Bismarck, N. D., only a short time before the hour for his address. At the auditorium he found all of the 8,000 seats taken and many standing.

Mr. Wilson said he had come west "to consult" with the people in the light of circumstances which affected the whole world. Everywhere, he declared, the human heart beats the same and on both sides of the ocean there was a sincere desire that there should be no more war.

It was a mistake, therefore, the president continued, to debate the peace treaty as if it were an ordinary treaty. It was not merely a treaty with Germany, he said, but a treaty effecting a settlement of the affairs of the world.

Hold Gang For Taking Tobacco From R. R. Car

HAMILTON, O., Sept. 11.—Hamilton and Middletown police today had in custody an alleged gang of tobacco thieves after firing shots at the truck in which they were attempting to escape with 77 cartons of the weed. The officers virtually held up the truck on the Middletown pike and forced the surrender of the gang, after an exchange of shots all of which went wild. The tobacco was stolen from a railroad car and was concealed in a corn field and a barn. The alleged thieves last night transferred it to a truck but the police were tipped off, stationed themselves along the pike and opened fire when it arrived. As a result Pote Natall, 23, Charles Fonnet, 18, and Ralph Yong, 19, and George Friedman, truck driver, are under arrest.

Strike Threat Causes Heavy Stock Selling

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Announce-

WORK RESUMED BY THE BUILDING TRADES IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—After weeks of tie-up a strike of carpenters and a lockout of allied trades, Chicago's building industry will be resumed tomorrow and be in full swing by Mon-after two days conference between leaders.

The agreement provides that the carpenters are to resume work at $2 1/2 cents an hour, until May 1920 when they will be placed on the same wage basis existing for other skilled trades. The carpenters struck for $1 an hour. A special meeting for ratification of the agreement will be held tonight, according to President Brims and other members of the committee.

Children Find Films; One is Fatally Burned

CINCINNATI, Sept. 11.—A roll of moving picture film tossed upon a city dump today cost the life of Margaret Forbes, 2 1/2 years old, daughter of Ralph Forbes, railroad switchman.

Last Wednesday Margaret and a number of other children came upon the abandoned film. One of the children obtained matches, and unwinding the film, began to show the pictures by placing lighted matches behind the film, which took fire. A tongue of flame ignited the dress of Margaret. The child was rushed to a hospital where she died today.

A Chance to Live

(By Zoe Beckley)

"TROUBLES NEVER COME SINGLE"

Meanwhile, Annie, upstairs, had got herself under control and was straightening up her house as she tried to think out what to do. Bernie's office must be notified. The family must be told. She must dress herself and the baby and hasten as soon as possible to the hospital and find out how Bernie was.

Annie decided first to telephone the chemical house where Bernard worked, and went around to the drug store, taking Robbie with her. She found the name in the book, called the number and asked for the manager.

"This is Mrs. Bernard Carroll—the wife of your shipping clerk. The man is very ill," she tried to keep her voice steady, "and has been taken to the hospital. Pneumonia, I think."

The man was kind, Bernard was a good shipping clerk, the most intelligent young man he'd had in a long while. He was making 40 to 50 percent on Bernie's wages. It would be impossible to replace him satisfactorily for $44.

"Why, that's too bad; I'm sorry to hear that," he said. "I'll send Carroll's pay to you today. This is Friday; we'll call it a week. Let me know how he gets along."

Annie thanked him and hung up. It was something to be sure of the $44 for she had less than a dollar in her purse, and there was the doctor to be paid. Then she walked to her mother's. Mrs. Hargan had been very poorly of late. Annie hated to add to her burdens with this new one. While she was greeting her mother and thinking how best to begin, Mrs. Hargan said: "Well, Annie, seems like we're for more bad luck. Your Aunt Margaret's lost her position at Simms's."

Annie could only gasp. "No!" "Simms got a young girl for her place," went on Mrs. Hargan, her thin voice taking on new hopelessness. "Said Margaret wasn't fast enough. Gave her two weeks' salary and fired her—just like that. Heavens knows what she'll do now. Seems there's nobody wanted in this world soon's they're well in the forties. I wish I could be out of the way, too. I'm only a care—"

Annie stopped her mouth with a kiss and turned comforter when she had come as the bearer of ill news.

KIDDER-BORGES

A handsome bride was Miss Margery Carlin Borges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Borges, who on Wednesday evening became the bride of Henry W. L. Kidder. The wedding was a very small affair only the close friends and relatives of the family being present.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. John R. Carnes, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Davison sang "Because," in her charming manner.

Amid a beautiful setting of roses, pink and white, and tall pink candles, which surrounded the improvised altar and Mrs. Joe Davison at the piano playing the Lohengrin procession, the bride party entered. First came the little ring bearers, Mary Elizabeth Zeller and Huber Hiram Stephenson, Jr., niece and nephew of the bride. Then came the bride-groom and his best man, Edward Kixmiller, and immediately following them, Miss Elizabeth Newson, the maid-of-honor, in a gown of black net over peach mousseline. Last to make her appearance was the bride, wonderfully attractive with costume of white beaded satin with iridescent trimming, court train and wearing the veil of her sister, Mrs. Huber Hiram Stephenson, a bride of four years ago. The bride was given away by her father, on whose arm she descended the broad stair case.

Following the ceremony a two course luncheon was served. Here again the pink and white color scheme was carried out perfectly. The out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Huber Hiram Stephenson, of Jackson, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis, Jackson; Miss Ruth Daly, of Akron; Charles Keeler, of Wetmore, Pennsylvania; and Dr. Virgil Counsellor, of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Kidder, left at eight thirty by motor for an extended trip through the east, their destination being Richmond, Maine. Mrs. Kidder was attired in taupe duvetyn traveling suit trimmed in seal.

They will return to Lima some time in October, and will enter their own home on State street, which is being gotten in readiness.

James W. Halfhill, Jr., of North Collett street, left Thursday morning for Kenton.

XXX—THE END OF AN OLD ROMANCE.

I turned to find beside me a newspaper man, who had been a devoted admirer three years before!

"Dut Dan Magruder! What are you doing here?"

"Down to cover the Fendall case," he answered with his usual lazy brevity. "Carelessness. Fine little scandal for the camp. Say, Nell, are you married or what?"

"That's a nice question," I laughed. "I sent you an invitation to the wedding."

"You sent me some engraved thing but I was on a big story when it came and I just gave it a glance. When I went to read it later, the office boy had thrown it in the waste basket."

"What a cavalier way to treat communications from me!" I cried. Inwardly I fairly purred.

That this man, whose interest in me had never waned despite my own weariness as shown by his repeated efforts to reanimate the old flame, should really have been so indifferent to the announcement of my approaching marriage, was inconceivable. His casual attitude was proof sufficient of a stab that wounded his vanity, if not something deeper.

"I can't say that you were so awfully considerate of me," he answered. "I can recall phoning you repeatedly without result and you broke the last three engagements I had with you. Perhaps you recall that you eloped to Bellaire with me once in a motor car and changed your mind about marrying me before we reached the court house?"

"But you were easily consoled. I heard that your affections were soon bestowed on a stenographer in your office. I dare say she is the girl I've seen you with a number of times."

He had the grace to flush.

"She wears pink waists—with red hair, too," he answered evasively. "And you know how sensitive I am to color. It's a continual shock to my temperament."

"Seriously, Dan, do you ever think of anything but your temperament? I almost married you once when I was very young and very foolish, and I'm still tremendously fond of you, but I pity the poor girl you will eventually choose. You are the sort of a man who will demand his study and forbid any other foot to desecrate its threshold. You will rave if a pen is disturbed and yet you will expect it to be always swept and dusted and orderly. If your home and your meals are not perfect in every detail, it will get on your nerves—and your temperament. But the housewife necessary to insure all this will bore you to extinction."

"Here, here," cried Dan, imitating applause. "You certainly can hit straight from the shoulder. That's what I like about you Nell. You're not contemplating a divorce, are you? I always said no one man would ever hold you. Perhaps I may have better luck next time."

"I'd like to be a cat with nine lives so I could have a different husband in each one and still be perfectly respectable," I declared. "It would be so educational. But still, there will be many widows in these parlous times. I suppose you're off to war shortly?"

"I don't know," he answered evasively. "I've a mother out west and several sisters."

I changed the subject before this enlarging family.

Three days later, a short announcement appeared in the Post:

"The marriage is announced of Miss Emily Stevens and Mr. Daniel."

WOULD CHANGE PAY OF NATIONAL GUARD

War Department Proposes to Give Reward to Individual Efficiency

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—A system of pay for national guard officers and men which will reward individual efficiency has been prepared by the war department and soon will be submitted to that general staff and congress for approval, according to a letter received by Senator Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota, from Maj. Gen. Jesse McI. Carter, chief of the military bureau.

Gen. Carter made known his plans in response to a request by Senator Kellogg for an opinion on the bill now before congress to increase the pay for national guardsmen to one-fourth the present pay of enlisted men. The army pay plan, now in use, is declared by Gen. Carter to be unwise and unbusinesslike.

"The existing plan," he said in his letter, "penalizes the efficient man who regularly attends drills and is denied pay because his organization sometimes fails to qualify because of the non-attendance of men who are not regular in their interest."

Under Gen. Carter's new plan "a member of the guard will be paid one-third of the present monthly pay of a man of corresponding grade in the army for each drill attended, the plan to provide that any change in the pay of the army to be correspondingly applied to the pay of national guardsmen."

The drill period will be one and one-half hours and there will be not to exceed five each month. Enlisted men will receive not less than $1 for each drill. Loss of all compensation for the month would result from failure to attend 60 per cent. of the drills or failure to perform other military service ordered by the secretary of war.

Gen. Carter further said "Each officer would receive a certain amount of pay for each and every drill which he attends, provided he secures sufficient attendance of enlisted personnel. It would afford him the privilege of increasing his pay by holding five drills."

"Under the existing procedure he receives a certain amount of pay when he attends forty-eight drills or even less; it gives him no reward for attending more than forty-eight drills a year. Under the proposed plan he may receive pay for attending sixty drills, which is none too many if progress as an organization is to be secured."

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM

If you want to enjoy big time vaudeville get in on the Orpheum show, starting today. This bill brings one of the best and classiest miniature musical comedies ever shown here. "Girls Will Be Girls," T. Dwight Peoples' latest creation for vaudeville.

Four other big Keith acts also open today. Wheeler and Potter in a phonic episode; Fennell and Tyson, odd bits of vaudeville; Charles Martin, the singing cowboy; The Avondos, xylophone experts, this bill runs the last four days of this week including Sunday.

"The Gray Horizon," the latest Hawthorn production starring Sessue Hayakawa, distributed by Exhibitors Mutual, is remarkable for its artistic photography.

Aside from the story, which is intensely dramatic, the unusual lighting effects, rich interiors and the splendor of the mountain shots, will hold the observer with their beauty and artistry.

The mountain stuff was taken far up in the Sierra-Nevada mountains. The vista of mountain ranges and the beautiful cloud effects taken at this location are gems of artistry and photography.

Shown Sunday in addition to the entire vaudeville bill at the Orpheum.

AT THE LYRIC

Rex Beach's great drama of Alaska will be shown at the Lyric tonight for the last time. It is a picture full of action and real interest.

According to pretty Olive Thomas who will be seen in her first Selznick Picture, "Upstairs and Down," at the Lyric Theatre Sunday, Governor R. Livingston Beckman, of Rhode Island is one of the best fox-trotters in the country. This latest accomplishment of the Governor's may not be known to many persons outside of his circle of personal friends, but Miss Thomas declares he is such an exceptionally good dancer that the whole world should know it. "Too many people," says Miss Thomas "believe that the art of dancing is confined to the very young. Of course Governor Beckman isn't an old man by any means, but everybody ought to know that if it came to a dancing contest between governors, the Rhode Island Governor would surely capture first prize." The evening that Governor Beckman was Miss Thomas' partner was on the occasion of a big motion picture ball in Providence. Miss Thomas was the guest of honor and she and Governor Beckman led the Grand March.

FAUROT—"WATCH YOUR STEP"

Throughout the performance of "Watch Your Step," Irving Berlin's international syncopated musical success, which will open the theatrical season at the Faurot tonight, the accent is placed on motion and motion is given the right-of-way all the time. Feet have little time to rest in "Watch Your Step."

It was originally produced by Charles Dillingham and is the only company en tour, and which has met with so much success in all parts of the United States and Canada. The vogue it obtained in New York was sufficient to carry it over a period of six months.

Mr. Berlin has the happy faculty of composing music that appeals to all classes of theatregoers, but it was "Watch Your Step" that brought him definitely into the glare of the limelight as a successful composer. "Watch Your Step" is a whirlwind of mirth, melody and dancing that is novel and unique in every respect. Nothing like it has ever been produced before. On the feeblest skeleton of a plot is hung synopses of the whistable music type and the bewitchingness of the tunes is powerful.

erful. "Minstrel Parade," "The Teacher," "They Follow Me Around," "Settle Down in a One-Horse Town," and "Lead Me to Love" have proven wonderfully popular everywhere. Mr. Berlin has written several new songs especially for this season's tour of "Watch Your Step."

The specially selected cast will include Helen Delany, Charles Orr, Marquitta La Pierre, Clay Crouch, Etta Hager, Charles Udell, Lillian La Pierre, George Robinson and Harry Ormand, together with a chorus of thirty pretty young women the like of which are seldom seen off Broadway.

FAUROT—"KISS ME AGAIN"

If this city does not prove an exception, crowded houses will be the rule rather than the exception at the Faurot on Saturday, when Frederick V. Bowers will be seen there.

2:20 PAGE PROVES
REAL HAIR RAISERDexter K. Captures Event With Little Major Crowding Him for the Honors

Two old axioms of the experienced horsemen were proven to be true back more at the opening day's races at the Allen County Fair yesterday. One was that it doesn't take fast horses to make the most interesting race and the other was that a crowd will always cheer for a gray horse, all things being equal.

A racing card that promised to be decidedly uninteresting was saved from being so by the 2:20 pace, which was one of those old-fashioned whipping finish affairs. The second heat brought out a finish that caused everyone on the grounds to whoop and roar. Little Major, a gray gelding from New Dover, captured the first heat in rather easy fashion, with Bill McGeehan, the elongated Montpelier, Ind., reinsman, as the runner up with Betty McKinney.

The second heat was a hair raiser from the time Starter Horner gave the word. Kid Marshall, a Lima sidewheeler driven by Jackson, went away boiling and had enough left to remain in front all the way. Going down the back stretch the second time the field closed in on him, and swinging into the home stretch all six swung wide and a stretch battle resulted that would do credit to any half-mile track race meeting. Kid Marshall won the heat by an eyelash from Little Major and Dexter K. and Betty McKinney were not over a neck back.

Kid Marshall was done after that, however, and Dexter K. went out and made it one, two, three, with the little gray gelding trying hard every heat. The shade of night had fallen when the final heat was raced off. Miss Stranger, owned by Charles Noel, of Lima, and driven by Al Clark, finished behind the money in this event.

The 2:24 trot was just an ordinary workout and totally without interest. John D. Rockefeller, owned by Minor Harrod, well known Lima attorney, winning right off the reel and without the semblance of a drive. Shandon, driven by Joe Gahan, was just as easily second in each heat, while Davis Dillon, the veteran trotter owned by D. J. Cable, was third each time.

The road race was won by Harmony Bell, owned and driven by Harry McNamee, of Hume, and there was no contest.

Jack Horner, well known Lima starting judge, got them away in good shade. The track was slow from the heavy rain of the morning.

Mack Pays $6,000

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.—Announcement was made today that Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, has purchased Pitcher Pat Martin, a southpaw, from the Binghamton club, of the International league for $6,000.

In order to get Martin Connie Mack had to outbid five clubs in both the National and American leagues and had to wait until an option, held by the Chicago Cubs, expired. The management of the Binghamton club gave Martin a check for $3,000, one-half of the purchase money. He is 26 years old.

HOPE MULLEN
LANDS KAYO

At Sidney, last night, Hope Mullen a favorite among lovers of the fistio sport in Lima put George "Kayo" Brown to sleep in the sixth frame of their go. From the first tap of the gong, Mullen had the best of the battle, and hit Brown whenever and wherever he chose. By the third round Brown was practically helpless but gamely hung on until the sixth, and a portion of the sleep potion was dealt him by Mullen.

Different from other occasions, Mullen showed well last evening. He was much faster on his feet, and handled himself well.

Ray Moyer won the semi-final from Jimmy Ally on a foul in the second session of their go, and Herb Boyer, put Don Bowsher to sleep in the second round of the prelims.

Owing to the playing of Jones, Hall and Gielsh the Gramm-Bernstein team won a decisive victory over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad aggregation at Murphy street ball park yesterday afternoon by the score of 8 to 6.

The movement of postal money orders between the United States and Mexico during the ten months, ended June 30, reached the large sum of 28,000,000 pesos—about $14,000,000—an increase of about 59 per cent. over the previous 10 months, according to information made public by the Mexican postoffice department in a report to the president.

Sallee was in excellent form and outpitched Hogg, enabling the league leaders to win their last game with Philadelphia by a score of 2 to 0. In only one inning did a visiting runner reach third base.

The Reds scored their two runs in the fourth on a single by Daubert, a double by Roush, and a hit to center by Duncan after Neale and Kopf had struck out.

It was one of the best played games of the season, both teams fielding faultlessly. Score:

BEGINS TO LOOK AS THOUGH DEMPSEY WILL NOT GO ACROSS

Champ Wants Carpentier to Meet Beckett and Decide Who is Best Man While Frenchman Says Same About Jack.

Jack Dempsey has been looking to Europe to produce a suitable opponent for him ever since he lifted Jess Willard's chapeau. Jack is still looking.

Regardless of what British boxing fans may think of Beckett, their new heavyweight champion, or what the French fans may claim for Georges Carpentier, the fact remains that unless these two meet to decide who's who in Europe, Dempsey will not feel forced to accept a match with either man.

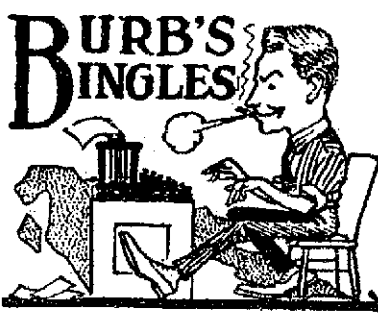

Called it Off
The recent calling off of the Beckett-Carpentier match in London and the substitution of Eddie McGoorty in Carpentier's place enabled Promoter C. B. Cochran, the Tex Rickard of Europe, to furnish action for "his public." But it did not furnish a real opponent for Dempsey, and it did not satisfy American boxing fans, who had been looking forward to the match with real interest.

The explanation that Carpentier's having been recalled to military service prevented his appearing against Beckett was "all well and good, yet a big percentage of the fans on this side of the pond could not help wondering whether or not there was a colored gentleman in the well-known woodpile.

Is Carpentier Through?
They asked themselves if it did not look as though Carpentier might have felt incapable of beating Beckett at the time and found an answer in the affirmative. In this case even though allowing for Carpentier's long layoff as the active defender of the European heavyweight title, the fans here felt that the postponement of the match was something of a tipoff on Carpentier's real condition.

Is Carpentier through? His manager, M. Deschamps, says he will be one thousand pounds that Georges can flatten Beckett any time they meet. But at the present time this is only conversation on Deschamps' part. The fact that Georges looked shaky when he met Dick Smith is more interesting. He is not the Carpentier of old, and this in spite of several months training at a seaside resort and a long layoff from arduous military service.

They're off again, boys. Those Reds, we mean.

Say, didn't it seem a bit like old times to watch the horses swing into the stretch at the driving park?

'Nother thing, didn't a tear or two appear in your eye when you looked the driving park over yesterday, and thought about what a wonderful racing plant it was a few years ago?

Hush, little driving park don't you cry, you'll be lots bye and bye.

The best laid plans of mice and men, etc., but what we started to say is, did'ja notice what the government has done to Hermann's plans for disposing of tickets to the series?

Well, well, the Giants followed suit, and won one.

Saith the Sage of Hawk Creek:—"Blissful ignorance is the sort the other fellow has in a horse trade."

Another record was made at the Grand Circuit meet yesterday, when Echo Direct went around in better time.

Local fans are contemplating the advisability of visiting Dayton tomorrow night and watching Battlin' Levinsky and Harry Greb stage their 12-round go.

Hope Mullen quickened up last night and landed a kayo upon Kayo Brown's jaw.

The White Sox took a vacation yesterday.

They had better get all the rest they can between now and the date of the series.

STOCKS RECOVER AFTER SHARP FALL

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Stocks broke sharply at the opening of today's session, reactions of 3 to 11 points resulting from the call of the steel leaders for a general strike on September 22. Offerings of United States Steel were so extensive that first quotations were not available until some 15 minutes after the market opened. Steel's initial and lowest quotation of 131 represented an extreme reversal of virtually 5 points from Tuesday's final price. Crucible Co. 11 prints but soon made up half its decline. Bethlehem lost 8 and Republic Iron 4. Among shippings, rails, motors and oils, prices were lower by 2 to 6 points.

Prices rebounded with surprising ease after the first setback, recoveries being effected on relatively moderate purchases. Foremost features of the rally including leading steels, equipments and oils, some of which soon made full recovery, with United States Steel regaining more than its loss. Further improvement was registered with the approach of noon, the movement embracing shippings and other representative shares. Equipments were the outstanding issues, however, Baldwin Locomotive leading at an actual gain of nearly 10 points. Call money opened at 6 per cent.

Today's broad stock market furnished proof of its strong technical position. Early extensive recessions due to adverse labor conditions were largely recovered although this advantage was partly forfeited at the close. Sales approximated 1,150,000 shares. The closing was heavy.

SANDLES MAKES A GREAT SPEECH AT THE COUNTY FAIR

Says City and Country Must Get Together to Get Any Place

COSTS MORE TO LIVE

Bit It's Worth a Lot More, Says Inimitable Putnam Countian

One of the best straight-from-the-shoulder addresses that have been heard in Lima for a long time was the talk made by Hon. A. P. Sandles of Ottawa, editor, politician, fair secretary, agriculturalist and stone expert.

Sandles came at the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce to address the fair crowd on the opening day, Chamber of Commerce Day, and his talk was along two lines, patriotism and the cementing of co-operation between town and country, a hobby he has preached far and wide for many years—and something that is beginning to be acted upon.

The speaker gave a lot of attention to the high cost of living and through his address as usual, sprinkled in epigrams of his own making that made a big hit with the crowd. A county fair is, usually, a poor place to make a speech, but after Sandles got warmed up yesterday the crowd was with him and he was interrupted frequently by vigorous cheers.

Cost of Living
"It does cost more to live, that's true, but it's worth a whole lot more," was one of his statements. He urged that farmers and city folks get together and elicit a fair meeting held in Gallia county recently, where the work of co-operation was started so well that already wonders have been accomplished.

City residents, he says, are too much inclined to want to get him and not feed the pigs; drink milk and not milk the cows; what they must do, because they can't actually do the production work, is to co-operate with the farmer and make his condition better.

Mail order houses are given a sound roast and those who deal with them even a worse one.

Should Have Big Fair

He praised the Chamber of Commerce for awakening to the value of the fair and attending in a body. He gave the people of Lima a hot roast for not having the best fair in the entire state. "Here you have one of the very best counties in Ohio and a network of steam railroads and interurbans to bring in the people, yet you are content to go along with any old kind of a fair. You want to wake up and get behind this fair, not only the farmers, who haven't done their bit, but the city people as well. I hope to see right here one of the very best county fairs in Ohio."

He said there was only one remedy for the foremen who start up trouble in this country. "Blither line em up and shoot them," he said, "then send them back to the country where they come from. There is no other way to settle this troublesome question."

Tribute to Flag

He paid a splendid tribute to the flag and at the close of his address the band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner." Every one in the large audience jumped to attention, something that would have been unusual before the war.

CALLS FOR JOBS EXCEEDS DEMANDS

Many Men Ask For Work Out of Town—Women In Demand

The number of requests for work especially among men being made at the U. S. employment office is in excess of the calls for work here in Lima. According to Mr. Baker, in charge of the men's division. Numerous calls are being received from laborers and machinists for out of town work, but the employment bureau is anxious to secure work for all of their applicants in the city if possible.

In the women's division the question is just the opposite, as it is almost impossible to obtain female help of any kind, either for office or domestic work. Good wages are offered, but the women do not seem to be desirous of working.

LAYTON COMING TO MUSTER IN CAVALRY AND INFANTRY CO.

Both Will Be Enlisted to Full Capacity By Friday Evening

NEED 70 FOR TROOP

Infantry Has Places For a Few More Men to Qualify

Adjutant General Layton with his staff and Colonel E. L. Bryant will be in Lima Friday to muster into the service of the Ohio National Guard a cavalry troop, and infantry company.

Both organizations are nearly filled and by tomorrow night both will be enlisted to full capacity. It is necessary to have seventy men before muster can be held.

Captain Jack Horner will have command of the Cavalry Troop and he reports that they have over seventy men signed up but as several will not be able to attend muster, he is working for a few more men. When this troop is mustered in to the service it will be the first Cavalry Troop in the State. Lima should be very proud to boast of having the first Cavalry troop in Ohio.

J. F. Ward who will have charge of the Infantry Company has his full quota but like the Cavalry Troop needs a few more men as it is impossible for every man who has enlisted to be present at muster.

OIL ASPHALT NAMED FOR USE ON PAVING FOR SO. OAK STREET

Usual Acceptance of Lake Asphalt in Specifications Changed

MAIN STREET NEXT?

Property Owners Are Said to Favor Use of the New Surface

After a petition had been filed by property owners on Oak street from Vine to Kirby streets, city officials awarded the street improvements of that thoroughfare to John G. Tait, who will lay the first stretch of "Willite" in the city. This is the first contract where oil asphalt has been laid here since the present administration has been in power, it is understood.

Heretofore, the lake asphalt concerns have landed all Lima contracts and an oil asphalt contractor has not landed an order. Service Director Mothman today stated, other contractors will not be let until it has definitely been determined just what kind of paving the majority of property owners want.

This being the case, it is very probable the Main street improvement will also be awarded to a "Willite" contractor, as the majority of property holders and business men on that thoroughfare has asked that the street be paved with this new construction.

It is claimed by the "Willite" concern, that their production will outwear ordinary asphalt as it contains a copper solution which makes it tough, and upon which the sun has no ill-effects.

SUPT. ARGANBRIGHT APPEALS FOR VIGOR IN STAMP DRIVE

Teachers and Pupils in County Urged to Push Campaign

THRIFT PROMOTER

State Director Asks Extra Endeavor During Last Months of 1919

Superintendent C. A. Arganbright of the Allen county public schools today appealed to teachers and school children to take an active part in the War Savings Stamp campaign this fall. The teaching of thrift is to be emphasized more than ever in the Ohio schools. Superintendent Arganbright has asked for the co-operation of all his teachers in order that the sale of War Stamps this fall may be much larger than during the early part of the year. He pointed out that the government is still calling for money and although other countries were floating loans the United States was depending upon War Savings Stamp or more Teachers' revenue.

Every school pupil here can become a member of the Ohio First Club by purchasing or selling one War Savings Stamp or more. Teachers also are eligible for membership and Superintendent Arganbright is especially desirous that as many pupils and teachers as possible become members. All members of the club selling more than $500 worth of War Savings Stamps before the end of the year will be awarded a medal.

H. W. Pearson, state director of education of the Ohio War Savings committee has written to Superintendent Arganbright expressing the desire that Ohio school children sell more War Savings Stamps during the last four months of the year than were sold during the spring months. Sales through the schools this year total more than $5,000,000 which with the $15,000,000 sales of last year make a grand total of more than $20,000,000.

In speaking of the Ohio First Club, Educational Director Pearson said: "The problem before us today is to Americanize America. Can this be done better than by having every individual invest money in America by means of War Savings Stamps? It is a good way to begin at any rate and the schools should, during the coming year, devote their energies to it."

KEY FURNISHED TO TREASURE HOUSE

How Best Aid to Wonderful Information May Be Secured

What vast and mighty treasures of words full of rich meaning lie locked up in our language—hidden away from common use, and enjoyed only by learned few. It is as if possessing the mineral wealth of Mexico, mined, smelted, and ready for the mint, we turned scornfully aside, revealing in a voluntary poverty.

A dictionary constitutes the treasure house of a language. As a people, we needlessly deprive ourselves of the helps at our command. In our daily tasks, not one of which can be performed without the use of words, we possess only the most primitive tools, when we might be equipped with the keenest and most efficient. If the dictionary be the barred and bolted treasure house we have mentioned, then the coupon we print daily in the Lima Times, is its key. For we have thus made it possible for every one to own a modern, first-class dictionary.

AUTOISTS WARNED AS TO SPEED NEAR SCHOOL BUILDINGS

With the opening of schools attention of auto drivers is directed to a curb which much be shown in approaching and passing the school buildings and grounds. Reports of janitor say warnings of the past have been ignored by autoists. City ordinances make it unlawful to drive past school property or hospitals either at a speed other than one which is such that the car is under full and complete control and ready for an emergency stop.

At the majority of the school buildings signs are placed on either side of the grounds calling attention of motorists to the necessity of careful driving. Janitors of buildings are vested with power such as motor cops have, and they are to keep a close lookout for those that violate the laws relative to travel.

Despite the warnings of parents and teachers alike children, especially those in the lower grades are thoughtless and oftentimes hurry across streets regardless of the crossing and directly in the path of an oncoming car.

TEACHING FORCE IS INCREASED BY BOARD

Schools Dismissed to Allow Children to Attend County Fair

Various matters of interest to the school authorities were discussed at the regular meeting of the board of education held Wednesday night at Central high school. The monthly report of Superintendent Collins was read, and included among other matters the transfer of one teacher from the Garfield building to another school where the condition was crowded, and the adding of two new teachers to the force. Miss Ruth Welty and Miss Carolyn Miller, Miss Esther Flory was granted a leave of absence by the board.

The board discussed the matter of purchasing blinds for the Whitaker school building but no action was taken. All of the schools were dismissed at the regular time Wednesday afternoon to permit the pupils to attend the fair, and also to give the teachers an opportunity of working out their schedules with their principals. School will reconvene for regular work next Monday morning.

Invitations have been sent to 246 business and professional men who are members of the club at the present time to gather at the Y. M. C. A. banquet rooms on Friday at 6:30 p. m.

The business men are inviting special guests of this gathering all returned "Y" war workers who entered the war service of the Y. M. C. A. from Lima and vicinity. This number includes, W. J. McLaughlin, I. W. Poage, N. E. Byers, Glenn N. Davis, W. Thomas, C. Zellers, J. A. Brenneeman. All of these men, with the exception of Zellers, saw service with the American expeditionary force. Mr. Zellers served for a year in the home camps. Every one of the men rendered exceedingly valuable service attested to by commendatory letters from men high in authority both from the military forces and executive heads of the association. Lima may well feel proud of the record made by these men who went from our midst to make the lot of our soldiers boys a bit brighter. These men will have something to say at this meeting concerning their work, which will be of intense interest to every man present.

Business Men's Club

In addition there will be an evening music and a report by a committee appointed to suggest plans for a permanent organization of the Business Men's club of the "Y."

This committee has made a wide investigation of the workings of similar clubs elsewhere and they will report a plan for organization and a program of activities that will make the Business Men's club of the "Y" one of the most important and active organizations of the city.

Jack Inoway, manager of the "Y" cafeteria will see to it that the number man is amply cared for at the banquet.

HUGE CROWD SEES ALLEN FAIR TODAY

Attendance Figures For Thursday Look to Equal Those of Any Day

The Allen County Fair had the weather Thursday and naturally it had the crowd along with it, for given a good day, a fair on Thursday will always roll up attendance records.

The hog exhibit is attracting wide attention, along with the other departments, and the Allen County Boys Pig Club is also in the limelight. The Art Hall was jammed to the doors all day today, and there are many interesting exhibits there. Attendance figures were not available at press time but judging from the appearance of the crowd the number of paid admissions today will equal that of any Thursday.
